COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1859. The general duliness of business for the past few months remains unaltered. Goods sold to arrive per Carl Melchers, Sen., and now in course of delivery, are the only signs of activity visible. The trade evidently wish to obtain some news of the whaling fleet before going in deeper. Until some certain report is obtained, this vacillating course will be apparent. The unsettled state of affairs in Europe has led to the placing of some foreign vessels under the Hawaiian flag, and these will be followed probably by others. The Carl Melchers, Sen., has done so, and taken the name of Malolo (Flying Fish), and the Kauai will also be placed under our flag. The Hanoverian bark Verden arrived yesterday from Bremen, consigned to Messrs. Hoffschlaeger & Stapenhorst. She sailed 5 days before the Carl Meichers, Sen., the latter vessel arriving on the 18th, making, it is reported, the quickest passage ever performed between the two ports. The Verden, we are informed, will be laid on for oil for Bremen. The C. Mejchers Sen. is offered for sale by her Consignees, Messrs Melchers & Co. She is fully found in every particular, and is well adapted for a packet between here and San Francisco.

The Gambia has been chartered to proceed to French Frigate Shoul to bring up the remainder of the saved articles from the wreck of the South Seaman. The prices obtained for those sold. arrived last week by the Kamehameha IV., brought very good prices, considering their damaged state.

The Frances Palmer, of the R. D. Line, having a full cargo of pulu, sugar, salt, etc., engaged, will sail the latter part of next week for San Francisco. Her freight list of $2,613, as given by us last week, included passage money. That of the Felix, under the same reckoning, would have reached $3,000 or thereabouts. The Orestes has commenced discharging cargo, previous to being repaired and put in a seaworthy condition

The arrival of the Franklin 2d from the coast of California, on the 21st, gives us the first fall whaler, although the arrival of the Tahmaroo at Lahaina on the 24th, gives them the first report of the northern fleet. She was from Kodiak, and halls 150 bbis, wh. Her report will be found in the "Memoranda." The Franklin 2d will land her oil for shipment to the U.S.

The Josephine sailed on Thursday for Jarvis Island, having on board as passenger G. P. Judd, Esq., the Agent of the American Guano Co., who is most indefatigable, in his management of the business entrusted to him.

The American Guano Co. expect a vessel here en route for Jarvis Island, by which, or by the sch Astoria, we may receive s mail.

The following is an abstract of the direct arrivals and departures of vessels from this and from Jarvis Island, connected with the trade of this Company as near as can be learned from the published reports, from January 1 to June 30, 1859:

In our last issue of the Times we gave a short synopsis of a decision recently delivered in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, regarding the purchase of a cargo of sugar specified to arrive and be delivered by the 1st of August, 1856, but did not arrive until the 26th of August.

The first decision of this case was published in the Times some months since, and attracted considerable attention. It was then thought to be an attracted considerable attention. erroneous decision; but the Court of Appeal has decided other-

E. Sellers of merchandise will, of course, look to this here

The following is the synopsis of the decision alluded to: A law case of some interest to shippers has been decided in the apreme Court of the State of New York. The action was for the non-fulfillment of a contract for the delivery of sugars, which had been purchased to arrive at a certain date. The plaintiffs purchased a cargo of seven hundred tons of sugar, from the East Indies, at 6% cents per pound, to be delivered on the 1st of August, 1856. The ship put into Singapore in distress, and did not arrive till the 26th of August. Sugars were raising, and the own-trip of the prescription of the state of New York. The action was to the a ers of the sugar notified the purchasers that the ship would not be in in time, and that they considered the contract at an end, but offered them the sugar at the market price when it should ar-rive. The purchasers had notified the sellers that they would take the sugar on the contract whenever it should arrive. The sugar was sold at 8% cents, and suit was brought for damages for non-delivery. In the Court below the purchasers recovered a verdict for $16.786 damages, and on appeal to the General term. Nails, kegs the verdict was for the same parties, assessing the damages at $27.515, with an allowance of $500 for costs. The ruling of the Oil cloth, bdll ourt was, that when goods are bought to arrive at a certain time, the purchaser may elect to take them or not, if they arrive

San Francisco and Honolulu Passages. The route between San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands is one much traversed, and well calculated to try the speed of clip-per fleets. As a race course, it has claimed the attention of nautical critics, who have watched with interest the anxious endeav ors of many an ambitious master to urge his ocean-steed to show her points in the often hard contested strife for victory. The average length of passages at different seasons of the year, ompiled and averaged from a register of all the trips actually made between the above ports during a period of five years, end-ing August I, 1859, kept in this city, in which 427 passages are enumerated, we give below. It will be seen that there has been an arrival and a departure, on the average, of every eighth or ninth day during that time:

PASSAGES DOWN-SAN FRANCISCO TO HONOLULU No. Passages. Average. Months. 9% days. November ----- 18 Making a total of 224 passages down, which occupied 3,774 days; thus establishing the average passage down to be 16 85-
